

RIVER STOLE GODS

Biography.

Line-up: Lasse Janßen (Vocals) / Raphael Kalinowski (Guitar) / Adam Reuter (Bass)

Emerging in Spring 2019 in Düsseldorf, Germany, RIVER STOLE GODS play Modern Metalcore with progressive impulses and prove courage to a complex, rhythm-driven music style.

With a focus on sound, atmosphere and dynamics RIVER STOLE GODS create a vibrant and multifaceted sound concept, ever-evolving with the individual influences of the band members. In their songs, the trio creates a well-balanced mixture of striking hooks with sophisticated, hard-driving riffs and emotionalizing vocals to establish a unique atmosphere for listeners to fall into and embrace the music.

"1452" by River Stole Gods is a dynamic and rhythmically complex metalcore anthem that hits hard from the first note. With thunderous drum patterns, blistering guitar riffs, and intense vocals, the song commands attention from start to finish.
